Задание 5. Выбери свой знак зодиака и переведи:

Aries - Овен

Feel like you're tripping over your own tongue? That's not surprising, considering the constant flow of verbosity that's spilling forth from you right now. Go ahead and enjoy your extreme eloquence -- everyone else is.

Leo - Лев

You may feel ready to move into a decisive new leadership role, but the stars say to let things gestate for a little while longer before you make your big move. Try talking things over with your boon companions and hear what they have to say.

Sagittarius - Стрелец

Having this much activity going on around you can be somewhat unsettling, but don't sulk. Just because something seems out of sync doesn't mean it'll be that way permanently. Wait it out and you'll feel things start to jell.

Taurus - Телец

Stay in the now rather than trying to jump forward into the future. You'll do best when you focus your attention on all the immediate details that require your assistance. Remember that, no matter how tempting it is to start booking yourself weeks in advance.

Virgo - Дева

Don't try to do more than you can comfortably handle -- and make sure you're very clear about your limits if others try to ask you to take more on. When possible, lighten your load rather than add more to it.

Capricorn - Козерог

Put the kibosh on anyone who's absolutely determined to make sure even the smallest things go haywire. With a little extra care, you can defuse this live wire before they make life any more difficult than it is.

Gemini - Близнецы

From you, a wink and a smile go beyond a thousand words -- they're practically an entire romantic saga. Your flirty energy livens things up wherever you go right now, so make sure that as many people as possible can appreciate your fabulous self.

Libra - Весы

You love watching this new scenario unfold in your life, but suddenly watching it isn't enough. You want -- no, you need -- to take action, but you're not sure which way to turn. Take a moment and look before you leap.

Aquarius - Водолей

Taking other people's opinions into consideration is usually the last item on your list of priorities, and that goes double when it comes to a very new and very exciting person in your life.

Cancer - Рак

For the first time in a very long time, you're listening only to one authority -- yourself. This is especially true regarding a social matter. You've been worried far too long about doing the right thing. Now it's time to do right by you.

Scorpio - Скорпион

Minor details could become major mistakes if they're left unchecked, but fortunately, there's plenty of time to check everything. Not only will this ensure your enterprise will go swimmingly, but it'll give you some much-needed peace of mind.

Pisces - Рыба

Learn to deal with ambiguity by letting it exist, rather than trying to make it go away. If you act too rapidly, you might just find that the solution becomes a much larger problem than the original situation.

Задание 4. Переведи текст:

The usual meals in England are: breakfast, lunch, tea and dinner, or in simpler houses, breakfast, dinner, tea and supper. In England mealtimes are as follows: breakfast time is between 7 and 9 a.m., lunch is between 12 and 2 p.m., and dinner is between 7 and 10 p.m. Breakfast is generally the bigger meal than you have on the Continent. Usual breakfast is porridge, bacon and eggs, marmalade with buttered toast and tea or coffee. For a change you can have a boiled egg, cold ham or perhaps fish. Breakfast is often a quick meal, because the father of the family has to get away to his work, children have to go to school, and mother has her housework to do. Englishmen generally have lunch at one o'clock p.m. The businessman usually find it impossible to come for lunch and so they go to a café or a restaurant where they usually find a mutton chop, or cold meat, or fish with potatoes, salad, then a pudding or fruit to follow. Some people like a glass of beer with lunch. Afternoon tea you can hardly call a meal, but for some people it has become a tradition. At this time“ everything stops for tea” in England. People often come in for a chat with their cup of tea. Some English families like to have the so called “high tea” which is quite a substantial meal. They have it between 5 and 6 o’clock. It usually consists of ham or tongue, tomatoes, salad or sausage with strong tea, bread and butter, then stewed fruit, or apricots with cream or a cake. The main meal of the day is called dinner. Dinner is eaten either in the middle of the day or in the evening. The midday meal usually consists of two courses – a meat course with a lot of vegetables and a soup.

Speaking about art galleries of London, we should first mention the National Gallery, the National Portrait Gallery and the Tate Gallery. The National Gallery houses one of the richest and most extensive collections of painting in the world. It stands to the north of the Trafalgar Square

The collection covers all schools and periods of painting, but is especially famous for its examples of Rembrandt. The National Gallery was founded in 1824 when the government bought the collection of John Angerstein, which included 38 paintings. The Tate gallery houses the national collection of British painting from the 16th century to the present day. It is also the national gallery for modern art, including painting and sculpture made in Britain, Europe, America and other countries.

Задание 1. Переведи текст:

The earliest books were written on tablets of wood or pieces of bark. In Greece and Rome, the tablets of wood were covered with wax, and writing was impressed upon them with a small stick called “stylus”. These tablets were held together on one side with thin strips of leather or metal rings. In Assyria and Babylonia clay tablets were used for writing and the words were drawn with a piece of wood. After baking, the tablets were kept on shelves, just like books are kept today. Although the clay tablets didn’t look very beautiful, they were long-lasting and some of them survived until the present day. The earliest books of the ancient world were written on papyrus and skins of young animals. These books took the form of a long strip, rolled from one cylinder to another. Though paper has been known in China since the first century, the secret of papermaking came to Europe much later.

Theatrical drama is based on three things. First there must be an actor or actors speaking or singing. Second, there must be some dramatic conflict between actors. Third, and just as important as the other two, there must be an audience following the progress of the drama. The first theatrical performance took place in ancient Greece. The Greek drama developed from hymn to Dionysius, the god of wine and good life. But it did not become true theatre until such performance included stories of the other gods and actors to represent them.

For thousands of years people used to live in harmony with environment and it seemed to them that natural resources were unlimited. In the 20th century with rapid growth of science and technology human achievements in conquering nature become so great that man’s economic activities to produce an increasing negative effect on the biosphere. People created new machines, built roads and cities. Rivers that used to be so beautiful and full of fish are poisoned. Air that used to be so clean and fresh is polluted. There are many ecological problems: water poisoning, air pollution, overpopulation of large cities, high level of noise, and extinction of rare animals. These problems are everybody’s concern. The Olympic Games are an international sport festival that began in ancient Greece. The original games took place every fourth year for several hundred years, until they were brought to an end in the early Christian era. The Olympic Games were renewed in 1896, and since then they have been staged every fourth year, except during World War I and World War II. The original Olympics included competitions in music, oratory and theatre performance as well. The modern Games haven't got them, but they represent a lot more sports than before. For two weeks and a half any international conflicts must be stopped and replaced with friendly competitions. This is the noble idea on which the modern Olympic movement is based.

Nowadays, it seems, everybody is “watching their calories”. There are even restaurants which print the number of calories each dish contains right on the menu. To understand what a calorie is and the part it plays in the body, let’s start with the subject of nutrition in general. Today, science is still not able to explain exactly how a cell transforms food into energy. And we also can’t explain why the cell in the body needs certain foods, and not others, in order to function properly.

We do know that food is broken down in the body by combining with oxygen. We might say it is ‘burned’ up like fuel.

A vegetarian is someone who avoids eating the flesh of animals (meat, poultry, or fish, including shellfish). Most vegetarians will also not eat eggs or cheese or use cosmetics or toiletries made that contain animal ingredients or are tested on animals. The word “vegetarian” comes not from “vegetable” but from the Latin word vegetus meaning “whole, fresh, full of life”. People are vegetarians for a number of reasons. Some think that it is wrong to keep and kill animals for use as food and in other products. Others choose to be vegetarians because they believe that a vegetarian diet is healthier than a diet that includes meat. Some people are vegetarian because of their religious beliefs. Some people have chosen to be vegetarian for ecological reasons.

Myth: About Alcohol for Teens

Myth: Alcohol gives you energy.

Reality: Nope. It's a depressant. It slows down your ability to think, speak, and move and all that other stuff you like to do.

Myth: Everybody reacts the same to alcohol.

Reality: Not hardly. There are dozens of factors that affect reactions to alcohol - body weight, time of day, how you feel mentally, body chemistry, your expectations, and the list goes on and on.

Myth: It's none of my business if a friend is drinking too much.

Reality: If you are a real friend, it is your business. You can't make someone change but you can be honest. Maybe they'll listen. You might even talk them into getting help.
